

Highland's Miner Webster named U.S. Army Coach of the Week

Army Coach of the Year will honor the state's best high school coaches

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
25 JANUARY 2013

Contact: Mike Sinnott
(517) 927-4570

PHOENIX, AZ – The U.S. Army Phoenix Recruiting Battalion announces that Highland's Miner Webster is the U.S. Army Coach of the Week. Highland knocked off Mesquite, 44-21, for Webster's 700th career win in 25 seasons. With the victory, Highland improved to 20-2 on the season. As a weekly winner, Webster is a finalist for the U.S. Army Coach of the Year for Arizona.

The U.S. Army Coach of the Year campaign is designed to honor those coaches whose exceptional leadership has ensured the success of their team and whose continued dedication to their student-athletes will ensure their future success in life and athletics.

Nominations for the U.S. Army Coach of the Year will be accepted through 1:00 PM EST on Sunday. The winner will be announced on Friday.

The United States Army is charged with protecting America's freedom and preserving peace. The Army trains and equips its soldiers to be the best, especially when it comes to their job, leadership, and soldiering skills. With more than 150 jobs available in many exciting fields, the U.S. Army provides many job training and leadership training opportunities. From working with computers to assisting doctors to fixing helicopters, there's an Army job that's right for you. For more information, go online to www.GoArmy.com.

For more information about the U.S. Army Coach of the Year, contact Mike Sinnott at (517) 927-4570.

- Go Army! -