PHOENIX, AZ – The U.S. Army Phoenix Recruiting Battalion is proud to announce that Chandler's Brady Dalton is the Army STRONG Wrestler of the Week. Dalton is ranked #12 in the nation at 126-pounds and has committed to wrestle at Utah Valley. Dalton is looking for his fourth state championship. As a weekly winner, Dalton is a finalist for the Army STRONG Wrestler of the Year.

During the season, the U.S. Army will accept nominations for the Army STRONG Wrestler of the Week from fans, the media, wrestling coaches, and athletic directors. Each Monday during the wrestling season, we will accept nominations for the Army STRONG Wrestler of the Week online at www.TheSportsFlash.com. Voting for the weekly winner will continue until 9:00 P.M. EST on Thursday. The weekly winner will be announced on Friday. Each weekly winner will be a finalist for the Army STRONG Wrestler of the Year.

The United States Army is charged with protecting America's freedom and preserving peace. The Army trains and equips its soldiers to be the best, especially when it comes to their job, leadership, and soldiering skills. With more than 150 jobs available in many exciting fields, the U.S. Army provides many job training and leadership training opportunities. From working with computers to assisting doctors to fixing helicopters, there's an Army job that's right for you. For more information, go online to www.GoArmy.com.
