HARRISBURG, PA – The U.S. Army Harrisburg Recruiting Battalion is proud to honor Pennsylvania's best high school coaches with the U.S. Army Coach of the Year program. The week two winners for the U.S. Army COTY in Pennsylvania include: Greenwood's Kent Houser (boys' basketball); Franklin Regional's Rick Klimchock (girls' basketball); and Gettysburg's Perry Smith (wrestling). As weekly winners, each coach is a finalist for the U.S Army Coach of the Year for the respective sport.

U.S. Army Coach of the Year – Week Two Winners

Boys' Basketball Kent Houser – Greenwood	Greenwood knocked off West Perry, 60-39, to win the Wildcats' fourth-straight Perry County Tournament. Greenwood joins Susquenita as the only other school to win four-straight Perry County Tournament titles.
Girls' Basketball Rick Klimchock – Franklin Regional	Franklin Regional opened the season with a four-point loss to Beaver, but has since won six consecutive games, including winning the championship at the Laurel Highlands Holiday Tournament.
Wrestling Perry Smith – Gettysburg	Gettysburg knocked off Century, 33-32, in the opening round of the Dale Bock Memorial Wrestling Tournament to give head coach Perry Smith his 200 th career victory in 20 years of coaching.

The 2011 Army Coach of the Year campaign is part of the U.S. Army Harrisburg Recruiting Battalion's 2011 Army STRONG Tour, which includes the Army Iron Man campaign, the Army STRONG Wrestler of the Year, and the Army Rivalry Tour.
