ASHEVILLE, NC – The U.S. Army's Asheville Recruiting Company is proud to announce that Smoky Mountain's Sarah Henson and Enka's Taylor McCurry are the HOOP STARS of the Week presented by the U.S. Army. Henson filled the nets for a career-high 31 points to lead Smoky Mountain to a 67-47 win over East Henderson, giving Mustangs head coach Cindi Simmons her 500th career win. McCurry scored a game-high 24 points to lead Enka to a 79-78 overtime win over Reynolds. As week winners, both HOOP STARS of the Week are finalists for the HOOP STAR of the Year.

The HOOP STARS presented by the U.S. Army campaign honors the best high school basketball players in the company's recruiting territory in western North Carolina. Fans can vote online for the weekly winner at www.TheSportsFlash.com. Voting ends at 9:00 P.M. EDT on Thursday. The winner announced on Friday.
