HARRISBURG, PA – Plymouth Whitemarsh knocked off host Susquehanna Township, 31-18, to win the Pennsylvania Passing League – East Division title on June 25 at Roscoe Warner Field. The Colonials went 7-1 for the tournament, winning seven-straight games after dropping their opening game of the event to Trinity, 26-7. The Indians went 5-2 for the event.

Eight teams competed for the 2nd Annual PPL-EAST Division title at Susquehanna Township's Roscoe Warner Field, including: Dallastown; Harrisburg; Mechanicsburg; Plymouth Whitemarsh; Steelton-Highspire; Susquehanna Township; and Trinity. Susquehanna Township fielded two teams during the competition that included pool play and a double-elimination format for the championship round. Steelton-Highspire (3-0) and Trinity (2-1) won their respective pools and were the top seeds in the championship round of the event. Trinity, Plymouth Whitemarsh, and Susquehanna Township were tied after pool play with 2-1 records, with Trinity winning the first tiebreaker with the most points scored in pool play.

Manheim Township won the first-ever PPL-EAST title with a 40-8 win over Coatesville in 2010.
