OKLAHOMA CITY – The U.S. Air Force's 349th Recruiting Squadron is proud to honor Sunrise Christian quarterback Zach Howell and wide receiver Preston Atherton as the U.S. Air Force Precision Air Strike of the Week as the best high school football passing combination in Kansas. Howell threw for 529 yards, hitting 40-of-54 passes with four touchdowns while hitting Atherton for 257 yards in a 26-13 win over Christ Prep. As weekly winners, Howell and Atherton are finalists for the U.S. Air Force Precision Air Strike of the Year.

"The Sports Flash" (TSF) Radio Network will accept nominations each week from high school football coaches, athletic directors, the media, and high school football fans. High school football fans will vote online for the weekly winner and each weekly winner will be a finalist for the U.S. Air Force Precision Air Strike of the Year. Each U.S. Air Force Precision Air Strike of the Week will receive a tee-shirt and certificate.

Throughout the campaign, fans can visit www.TheSportsFlash.com to stay updated on the campaign, vote for the weekly winner, and much more.

For the U.S. Air Force, people are its most valuable asset. Without them, even the most advanced systems are rendered useless. The U.S. Air Force recruits quality airmen from a cross-section of America to meet the Air Force's ever-changing needs. The Air Force has more than 140 enlisted career opportunities available for qualified men and women. For more information about the enlisted, officer, and healthcare professional job opportunities in the U.S. Air Force, contact your local Air Force recruiter.
