SYRACUSE, NEW YORK - The U.S. Air Force's 313th Recruiting Squadron is proud to announce that Monroe's Briasia Mason and Lyme's Troy Wilson have been voted the U.S. Air Force High Flyers of the Week. Mason's all-around effort helped Monroe to a 64-36 win over Edison. The freshman poured in 28 points, grabbed seven rebounds, dished out nine assists, and made six steals. Wilson poured in 40 points to lead Lyme to a 79-69 win over Madison in the opening round of the Class D, Section III playoffs. As weekly winners, both players are now finalists for the U.S. Air Force High Flyer of the Year for the state.

"The Sports Flash" (TSF) Radio Network accepts nominations each week from high school basketball coaches, athletic directors, the media, and high school basketball fans. High school basketball fans will vote online for the weekly winner. Each weekly winner will be a finalist for the U.S. Air Force High Flyer of the Year. Throughout the campaign, fans can visit the official U.S. Air Force High Flyers site at www.TheSportsFlash.com to stay updated on the campaign, vote for the weekly winner, and much more.

For the U.S. Air Force, people are its most valuable asset. Without them, even the most advanced systems are rendered useless.
