SYRACUSE, NEW YORK - The U.S. Air Force's 313th Recruiting Squadron is proud to announce that Canastota's Shea Foster and Argyle's Joey Lufkin have been voted the U.S. Air Force High Flyers of the Week. Foster stripped the nets for a school-record 36 points in Canastota's 47-27 win over Camden. Lufkin exploded for 47 points to lead Argyle to a 69-57 win over Lake George. As weekly winners, both players are now finalists for the U.S. Air Force High Flyer of the Year for the state.

"The Sports Flash" (TSF) Radio Network accepts nominations each week from high school basketball coaches, athletic directors, the media, and high school basketball fans. High school basketball fans will vote online for the weekly winner. Each weekly winner will be a finalist for the U.S. Air Force High Flyer of the Year. Throughout the campaign, fans can visit the official U.S. Air Force High Flyers site at www.TheSportsFlash.com to stay updated on the campaign, vote for the weekly winner, and much more.

For the U.S. Air Force, people are its most valuable asset. Without them, even the most advanced systems are rendered useless. The U.S. Air Force recruits quality airmen from a cross-section of America to meet the Air Force's ever-changing needs. The Air Force has more than 140 enlisted career opportunities available for qualified men and women. For more information about the enlisted, officer, and healthcare professional job opportunities in the U.S. Air Force, contact your local Air Force recruiter.
