SYRACUSE, NEW YORK - The U.S. Air Force's 313th Recruiting Squadron is proud to announce that Randolph's Mckenna Mayock and Batavia's Jalen Smith have been voted the U.S. Air Force High Flyers of the Week. Mayock dropped in a season-high 31 points, grabbed 11 rebounds, dished out six assists, and recorded eight steals in a 71-35 win over Cassadaga Valley. Smith poured in 19 of his 24 points in the fourth-quarter to lead Batavia to a 76-53 win over Greece Olympia. As weekly winners, both players are now finalists for the U.S. Air Force High Flyer of the Year for the state.

"The Sports Flash" (TSF) Radio Network accepts nominations each week from high school basketball coaches, athletic directors, the media, and high school basketball fans. High school basketball fans will vote online for the weekly winner. Each weekly winner will be a finalist for the U.S. Air Force High Flyer of the Year. Throughout the campaign, fans can visit the official U.S. Air Force High Flyers site at www.TheSportsFlash.com to stay updated on the campaign, vote for the weekly winner, and much more.

For the U.S. Air Force, people are its most valuable asset. Without them, even the most advanced systems are rendered useless. The U.S. Air Force recruits quality airmen from a cross-section of America to meet the Air Force's ever-changing needs. The Air Force has more than 140 enlisted career opportunities available for qualified men and women. For more information about the enlisted, officer, and healthcare professional job opportunities in the U.S. Air Force, contact your local Air Force recruiter.
