JACKSONVILLE, FL – The U.S. Army Jacksonville Recruiting Battalion is proud to announce the launch of the 3rd Army Iron Man campaign, which honors the best two-way high school football players in the battalion's recruiting territory that covers north Florida. Playing and excelling on both offense and defense, the Army Iron Man must demonstrate physical and emotional strength, as well as strength of character. The Army Iron Man embodies the qualities of Army STRONG!

This is the third Army Iron Man campaign for the U.S. Army's Jacksonville Recruiting Battalion. In 2010, Bishop Snyder's John Neloms won the honor after Vanguard's Leo Burgess won the inaugural honor in 2009.

"The Sports Flash" (TSF) Radio Network will accept nominations each week from high school football coaches, athletic directors, media members, and high school football fans. Each week, high school football fans from throughout the battalion's recruiting territory will have the opportunity to vote for the winner of the Army Iron Man of the Week. At the end of the regular season, fans will vote for the Army Iron Man of the Year from among the weekly winners. Throughout the campaign, fans can visit www.TheSportsFlash.com to stay updated on the Army Iron Man campaign; vote for the weekly winner; and much more.
