BECKLEY, W.V. – The U.S. Army Beckley Recruiting Battalion is proud to announce that Greenbrier West's Malik Boatwright is the Army Iron Man of the Week as the state's best two-way player. Boatwright returned a kick-off for a 79 yard score, ran for another score, and grabbed two interceptions on defense in a 34-6 win over Summers County. As a weekly winner, Boatwright is a finalist for the Army Iron Man of the Year for West Virginia.

Playing and excelling on offense and defense, the Army Iron Man must demonstrate physical and emotional strength, as well as strength of character. The Army Iron Man embodies the qualities of Army STRONG. The campaign honors the best two-way high school football players in the battalion's South Carolina recruiting territory. Fans can vote online for the weekly winner at www.TheSportsFlash.com.

TSF Radio Network is now accepting nominations for the Army Iron Ma of the Week. Voting for the Army Iron Man of the Week ends on Thursdays at 9:00 P.M. EDT with the winner being announced on Friday morning.

The United States Army is charged with protecting America's freedom and preserving peace.
