NEW ARENA IN THE WORKS

- The University of Texas and a group led by the Oak View Group (OVG) will build a world-class arena on campus that will be the home to Texas Men's and Women's Basketball games, graduations, concerts and other events, the University announced Dec. 20, 2018.
- The arena is expected to open in 2022.
- The innovative 35-year agreement between UT and ArenaCo - which includes OVG, Live Nation, C3 Presents and Matthew McConaughey - will provide a public benefit for UT and the City of Austin. The $338 million venue will be constructed on land fully owned by UT without using any university or public money.
- The arena will be located on a current parking lot south of Mike A. Myers Stadium.
- The 10,000-seat arena will provide an intimate, state-of-the-art men's and women's basketball fan experience and feature student seating surrounding the court. The new arena is designed to expand to 15,000 seats to provide a world-class venue for touring concerts and shows.
- UT's new basketball arena and events center will be named Moody Center in honor of a $130 million grant to The University of Texas at Austin from the Moody Foundation.
- The grant to support Texas Athletics is the single-largest gift from a foundation in the university's history and brings to more than $200 million the donations to UT Austin from the Galveston-based foundation. Previously, the foundation contributed $50 million to support the Moody College of Communication and $20 million to reimagine and transform the exterior spaces at the Blanton Museum of Art. Overall, the foundation has contributed more than $260 million to institutions in the University of Texas System.
- A groundbreaking ceremony for the Moody Center was held on Dec. 3, 2019 at the site of the arena.
