- The schools have split two previous NCAA Tournament games with Carolina beating the Badgers in the 2005 East Regional final in Syracuse and Wisconsin knocking off the Tar Heels in the 2015 Sweet 16 in Los Angeles in the West Region.
- Carolina also defeated Wisconsin in the 2011 ACC/Big Ten Challenge in Chapel Hill and the 2016 Maui Invitational title game.
- UNC has never played the Badgers in Madison, Wis., although the Tar Heels played their first two of 173 NCAA Tournament games there in 1941 against Pittsburgh and Dartmouth.

TOP HALF OF THE LEAGUE

- Carolina tied for fifth in the ACC with a 10-6 record despite playing more road games (9) than home games (7) and playing arguably the most challenging schedule in the league.
- That was Carolina's 62nd finish in the top half of the league in 68 ACC seasons.

- The Tar Heels are averaging 82.0 points over their last nine games and 84.8 over the last four.
- Carolina scored 91 points in its March 6 home win over Duke, a season-high 101 points against Notre Dame and 81 in the ACC quarterfinals against Virginia Tech. Those were among the 10 times in the last 17 games UNC scored 80 or more points, something it did only one time (in a 13-point loss at Iowa) in its first 11 games.
- Carolina's 101 points vs. Notre Dame were its most in an ACC Tournament game since 1993 and the first time any team hit 100 in regulation in the ACC Tournament since 1999.

- Four players have scored 20 points this season – Love (twice), Sharpe (twice), Bacot (twice) and Walker Kessler.
- In four halves against Duke this season the Tar Heels shot 51.6, 54.5, 55.2 and 55.6 percent from the floor.
- The Tar Heels have trailed at the half in 15 of 28 games. Carolina has rallied to win six of those 15 games.
- UNC is 11-1 when it leads at the half, 6-9 when it trails and 1-0 when tied.
- The ACC semifinal against Florida State continued a trend where the Tar Heels trailed early before playing a strong second half. FSU led by 13 in the first and 11 at the half, before Carolina opened the second on a 27-11 run to take a five-point lead.
- For the season, the opponents have outscored the Tar Heels by 12 points in the first half, while Carolina has outscored their opponents by 188 points (6.7 ppg) in the second.
- Carolina has trailed by double digits in the first half 12 times, rallying to win four of those games (UNLV, NC Central, Kentucky and Florida State at home). Three other times UNC took the lead in the second half after trailing by 10 or more in the first, but eventually lost the game (Texas, at Iowa and Florida State in the ACC semifinals).
- UNC also won at Miami after the Hurricanes took a 10-point lead midway through the second half.
- Carolina has shot a higher percentage from the floor in the second half in each of the last eight games, 10 of the last 11 and 19 times overall.
- Carolina has shot 50 percent from the floor in the first half five times this season and has won four of those games (Kentucky, loss at NC State, home win over the Wolfpack, at Duke and Louisville).
- UNC has shot 50 percent or better from the floor for the game six times this season (.544 vs. NC State, .525 at Pittsburgh, .531 at Duke, a season-high .607 vs. Louisville, .554 in the home win over Duke and .506 vs. Notre Dame in the ACC Tournament). UNC is 6-0 this season and 220-9 in 18 seasons under Roy Williams when it shoots 50 percent from the floor.

ASSISTS/TURNOVERS

- Turnovers have been a major storyline throughout the season, in large part because the Tar Heels play six freshmen among their 10-man rotation.
- For the season, UNC has 19 more assists than turnovers. Carolina has never committed more turnovers than it had assists in 17 previous seasons under Roy Williams. The closest it came was in 2009-10, when the NIT-bound Tar Heels replaced four starters from a national championship team and had 15 more assists than turnovers in 37 games.
- In ACC play this season, the Tar Heels had 271 assists and 241 turnovers.

- The Tar Heels are 13-3 this season when they have more assists than turnovers.
- In 18 seasons under Roy Williams, the Tar Heels have won 81.4 percent of their games when they have fewer turnovers than their opponents.
- Carolina's opponents average only 0.4 more points off turnovers for the season than the Tar Heels (15.8 to 15.4). However, the opponents have scored 19 or more points off turnovers in five of the last seven games, including 25 by Florida State in Chapel Hill, 28 by Syracuse, 23 by Duke and 19 by the Seminoles in the ACC semifinals.

THREES

- Freshman Kerwin Walton leads UNC with 56 three-pointers and three-point percentage at .415 (56 of 135).
- Walton has the highest three-point percentage by a UNC freshman in program history.

.358	Raymond Felton, 2002-03 (69 of 193)

- Freshmen Caleb Love and RJ Davis are second and third with 32 and 31 threes, respectively. Love is shooting 26.0 percent from three for the season but has hit 12 in the last five games. Davis made a season-high four threes among his 19 points in the ACC quarterfinals vs. Virginia Tech.
- UNC has made 31 threes in the last four games (eight vs. Duke, nine vs. Notre Dame, eight vs. Virginia Tech and six vs. Florida State). Players other than Kerwin Walton, who leads the team in threes, made 22 of those 31 three-pointers.
- UNC has made 10 three-pointers twice this season, including January 16 at Florida State and February 6 at Duke.
- The Tar Heels have won the last five times they made at least seven threes in a game (since they lost when making 10 at FSU).
- The Tar Heels are shooting 31.7 percent from three-point range this season, which is on pace for the second lowest in school history.
- Carolina has been outscored 276-147 from the three-point line in its 10 losses this season.
- The opponents have averaged 9.2 threes in the nine losses and shot 40.9 percent from beyond the arc (UNC has made 4.9 threes per game and shot 28.7 percent in the losses).
- In UNC's 18 wins, the opponents still make more threes (7.1 to 6.0), but the Tar Heels have an advantage in percentage (.322 to .310).
- Carolina is making 5.6 three-pointers per game. Last season, the Tar Heels made 5.48 per game. In the previous three seasons, UNC had made 7.08 (2016-17), 8.24 (2017-18) and a school-record 8.67 (2018-19) per game.

FRESHMEN

- Tar Heel freshmen have started 58 games this season, the sixth most in the country and the most of any team in the 2021 NCAA Tournament.
- Should Carolina start its most-frequent lineup this season, which includes freshmen Caleb Love and Kerwin Walton, it would be the first time UNC started two freshmen in an NCAA Tournament.

NOVEMBER 2020 SIGNEES

- D'Marco Dunn, a 6-5 guard from Tucson, Ariz., and Dontrez Styles, a 6-7 wing from Kinston, N.C., signed National Letters of Intent to play for the Tar Heels.
- Dunn moved in 2019 to Fayetteville, N.C., where he plays at Westover High School for Coach George Stackhouse. He led Westover to a 30-0 record and conference title. Westover was named co-state champions by the North Carolina High School Athletic Association after the playoffs were canceled due to the pandemic.
- Dunn was an all-state selection in 2020 and was named PAC 9 Conference, Cumberland County and District Player of the Year. He previously attended Marana High School in Tucson for two years before moving to Fayetteville.
- Styles played for Coach Perry Tyndall at Kinston High School. He averaged 19.7 points and 11 rebounds as a junior when he led Kinston to a 26-4 record.
- A four-time honor roll student, Styles was the 2019-20 Eastern Conference Player of the Year, a three-time all-conference selection, all-state honoree and an all-tournament pick at the John Wall Holiday Invitational.

JAMISON TO ENTER COLLEGE HALL OF FAME

- Antawn Jamison will become the 12th Tar Heel player or coach enshrined in the NABC College Basketball Hall of Fame. He will join coaches Ben Carnevale, Frank McGuire, Dean Smith, Larry Brown (who played at UNC) and Roy Williams, and players Billy Cunningham, Bob McAdoo, James Worthy, Phil Ford, Charlie Scott and Sam Perkins.

- Jamison was the 1998 National Player of the Year and first ACC player to earn first-team All-ACC honors as a freshman, sophomore and junior. He was the third player in ACC history to be named ACC Player of the Year, ACC Tournament MVP, NCAA Regional MVP and National Player of the Year in the same season (1997-98).

ment game since Harrison Barnes and Kendall Marshall started four in the 2011 Tournament.

- UNC freshmen played 2,983 of 5,600 minutes (53.3 percent) this season.
- Freshmen are third (Caleb Love), fourth (Day'Ron Sharpe), fifth (RJ Davis) and sixth (Kerwin Walton) in scoring. This would be the first season four freshmen are among UNC's top six scorers.

- Five Tar Heels won ACC Freshman of the Week honors this season, the first time in ACC history one team had five different players earn Freshman of the Week honors in the same season (Wake Forest had four different winners in 1978-79).
- Caleb Love won twice for his play against Wake Forest/NC State and Duke, Day'Ron Sharpe vs. Notre Dame, RJ Davis vs. Syracuse/Florida State, Kerwin Walton vs. Northeastern/Louisville and Walker Kessler vs. Marquette/Florida State.

- Prior to this season, the single-game record for combined scoring by UNC freshmen was 58 against Penn State in the 2002-03 opener. - In one stretch of UNC's ACC quarterfinal win over Virginia Tech, Tar Heel freshmen accounted for 26 consecutive points.
- Carolina's win over Florida State on February 27 marked the first time in UNC history four freshmen were the only Tar Heels to score in double figures (Walker Kessler 20, Kerwin Walton 13, RJ Davis 12 and Caleb Love 12).
- This is the eighth time in Williams' 18 seasons at UNC a freshman started at the point for at least a majority of the season: Bobby Frasor in 2005-06, Ty Lawson in 2006-07, Kendall Marshall in 2010-11, Marcus Paige in 2012-13, Nate Britt in 2013-14, Coby White in 2018-19, Cole Anthony in 2019-20 and Caleb Love in 2020-21.
- Love is the fourth Tar Heel to start at the point in the last four seasons (senior Joel Berry II in 2017-18, White in 2018-19, Anthony in 2019-20 and Love).

WILLIAMSES GIVE $3 MILLION FOR SCHOLARSHIPS AT UNC

- On March 8, UNC announced a $3 million gift from Roy and Wanda Williams to provide scholarships at their alma maters.
- The Williamses dedicated $1.5 million to the Carolina Covenant, $1 million to Carolina Athletics to endow a scholarship in men's basketball and $500,000 to the Chancellor's Science Scholars program.
- "The whole world is in a tough situation right now — financially, health-wise, everything you can think about. And we are in a position to be able to do something about it. It just seemed like it was the right idea at the right time," says Coach Williams. "We hope others might be encouraged to do some things as well."
- The Williamses have given more than $5.8 million to Carolina in the 18 years Coach Williams has been head coach of the Tar Heels. That includes more than $600,000 the Williamses gave to pay for the extra year of grants-in-aid UNC's spring sport seniors received in 2021 due to Covid-19.
- The Carolina Covenant provides eligible low-income scholars a debt-free path to graduation through a combination of scholarships, grants and work-study. An endowment that will last generations
- The endowed basketball scholarship will be given to the 13th man on the squad, an idea that originated with Wanda. The Williamses' son, Scott Williams was on UNC in the late 1990s that included All-Americans Antawn Jamison and Vince Carter. Wanda and Coach Williams want to ensure opportunities like these stay in place.
- The Chancellor's Science Scholars program offers academic scholarships to encourage talented students to explore their interests in science, technology, engineering and math, ultimately strengthening the STEM workforce through diversity.

2020-21 POSTGAME NOTES

GAME 1: UNC 79, CHARLESTON 60

- Caleb Love and RJ Davis started at guard, the first time two freshmen guards started in a game for UNC since Ty Lawson and Wayne Ellington started vs. Georgetown in the 2007 NCAA East Regional final (they started together 32 times that year).
- It was the third pair of Tar Heel freshmen guards to start under head coach Roy Williams. In 2005-06, freshmen guards Bobby Frasier and Marcus Ginyard started 14 times, including the season opener.
- Love became the eighth freshman to start at the point in Roy Williams' 18 seasons at UNC (Quentin Thomas in 2004-05, Bobby Frasier in 2005-06, Marcus Paige in 2012-13, Nate Britt in 2013-14, Jalek Felton in 2017-18, Coby White in 2018-19, Cole Anthony in 2019-20 and Love).
- Five Tar Heel freshmen combined to score 50 points, the most in a season opener since 2002-03 (Rashad McCants, Sean May, Raymond Felton and David Noel scored 58 vs. Penn State, the most ever by UNC freshmen in their first game).
- Carolina did not allow a field goal until the 11:23 mark of the first half (a three-pointer by Zep Jasper to make the score 16-5, UNC).
- Charleston took its only lead of the game at 43-42 with 15:00 to play, before the Tar Heels went on a 17-0 run over the next 4:43 to take a 59-43 lead.
- Love led UNC with 17 points. It marked the second straight season a freshman point guard led UNC in scoring in the season opener (last year Cole Anthony set the ACC scoring record for freshman in a debut with 34 against Notre Dame).
- Love was 8 for 8 from the free throw line, the best performance ever by a Tar Heel in his first game (Danny Green went 6 for 6 as a freshman in the 2005-06 opener vs. Gardner-Webb).
- Love became the seventh UNC freshman point guard to play 25 or more minutes in his first game (with Phil Ford, Kenny Smith, Ed Cota, Raymond Felton, Marcus Paige and Cole Anthony). His 17 points are the second most among those seven players (Anthony had 34 last year) and he is the only player with as few as one turnover (Kenny Smith had two vs. Missouri).
- Sophomore Armando Bacot (11) and freshmen Love (17), Day'Ron Sharpe (13) and Davis (11) scored in double figures. It was the first time three Tar Heel freshmen scored in double figures since 12/21/19 against UCLA when Bacot, Anthony Harris and Jeremiah Francis did that.
- It was the first time three freshmen scored in double figures in the season opener since the 2010-11 season when Harrison Barnes (14), Reggie Bullock (12) and Kendall Marshall (10) against Lipscomb.
- Sharpe had a double-double (13 points and 10 rebounds) in his debut (Anthony also had a double-double in his first game).
- Sharpe became the 11th Tar Heel with a double-double in his first game. The list includes sophomores Lennie Rosenbluth, Larry Miller, Rusty Clark and Bobby Jones, and freshmen James Worthy, Sam Perkins, Pete Chilcutt, Sean May, Ed Davis, Cole Anthony and Sharpe.
- Andrew Platek made a career-high four steals (previous was two twice) and tied his career high with two blocked shots. He won UNC's defensive player of the game award for the first time in his career.

- UNC shot under 40 percent for the first time in a win since the Yale game on 12/30/19. UNC had lost its previous six games when shooting under 40 percent.
- UNC scored 30 second-chance points for the first time since beating Tennessee Tech on Nov. 16, 2018.
- Carolina is 99-12 in season openers, including 17-1 under head coach Roy Williams.

GAME 2: UNC 78, UNLV 51 (Maui/Asheville)

- UNLV scored the first 13 points. That was the most points by an opponent to begin a game since Miami led 14-0 in the 2018 ACC Tournament quarterfinal in Brooklyn.
- Platek scored UNC's first points with 13:42 to play in the first half on a three-pointer.
- UNC took its first lead with 3:22 left in the first half on a drive by Davis to go ahead, 29-27.
- Carolina closed the first half on a 37-17 run and began the second half on a 13-1 run.
- UNC out-scored UNLV 78-38 over the final 33:42.
- Carolina held UNLV to 16.7 percent shooting from the floor in the second half (6 of 36) and 29.0 percent from the floor for the game (18 of 62).
- UNLV's second-half FG percentage was the lowest in a half by a UNC opponent since Elon shot 16.1 percent in the second half at Elon on 11/9/18.
- UNLV made its first five field goal attempts to begin the game, then made 13 of 57 (.228) over the final 35:22.
- Carolina missed its first eight field goal attempts to begin the game, then made 25 of its next 51 shots from the floor (.490).
- Brooks became the 78th player to score 1,000 career points as a Tar Heel. The 78 players are an NCAA record. He's the first Tar Heel to reach 1,000 since Luke Maye in 2019.
- Platek scored in double figures for the third time in his career and the first time since his freshman year (12 vs. Portland and 11 vs. Western Carolina on 12/6/2017).
- Black had a game-high 10 rebounds, tying his career high (10 at Notre Dame on 2/17/20).

GAME 3: UNC 67, STANFORD 63 (Maui/Asheville)

- Carolina advanced to the finals of the Maui Invitational for the seventh time in eight appearances.
- UNC had lost its last 18 games when scoring under 70 points. The previous win with less than 70 points was a 69-68 victory on Jan. 13, 2018 at Notre Dame.
- Carolina had 24 turnovers, which equal the sixth most in any game under Roy Williams. The last time UNC won with at least this many turnovers was March 23, 2012, when UNC committed 24 turnovers in an overtime win over Ohio University in the 2012 NCAA Sweet 16.
- Carolina had lost the previous 13 times when trailing at the half.
- Five Tar Heels (the five starters) scored in double figures for the first time this season (Love 16, Davis 11 and Bacot, Brooks and Black 10 apiece).
- Sharpe led UNC in assists with four. He also became the first Tar Heel ever to have at least seven rebounds, four assists, four blocked shots and two steals in a game.

- Carolina held Stanford to 10 of 30 from the floor in the second half (.333).
- Williams improved to 11-1 in games against former players as head coaches, including 5-1 against Stanford's Jerod Haase.
- Carolina is 13-0 against the Cardinal.
- UNC's 13-0 record is the second-most wins without a loss against any opponent. The Tar Heels are 19-0 all-time vs. The Citadel.
- UNC has won 16 in row against Pac-12 opponents and is 17-1 under Roy Williams against the Pac-12.

GAME 4: TEXAS 69, UNC 67 (Maui/Asheville)

- The Tar Heels fell to 22-4 in the Maui Invitational, including 4-3 in title games.
- Carolina led, 15-10, before Texas ran off 14 straight points. UNC trailed by 16 in the first half and 12 at the break before tying the game on a Love free throw with 3:54 to play. UNC took its first lead of the second half at 65-63 on a baseline jumper by Brooks with 2:35 left, but that was UNC's last field goal of the game.
- Carolina missed its final four field goal attempts over the last 1:46.
- Black tied the game by making two free throws with 25 seconds remaining.
- Matt Coleman III made the winning jumper for Texas with 0.1 seconds to play.
- It was the first winning basket by the opponents with less than a second to play since Virginia's Tomas Woldetensae hit a three with 0.8 to play on 2/15/20.
- It was the fifth time in UNC's last 17 games an opponent hit a game-winning shot with less than three seconds to play (0.4 seconds in the second overtime at Virginia Tech on 1/22/20; 0.0 on the clock in OT by Duke on 2/8/20; 0.8 seconds by Virginia on 2/15/20; 2.4 seconds at Notre Dame on 2/17/20; and 0.1 seconds by Texas).
- Brooks led UNC in scoring for the first time this season with 18 points.
- Brooks was selected to the All-Tournament team.
- Bacot had his first double-double this season and the 12th of his career with 10 points and a season-high 12 boards.

- The win was the 903rd for Roy Williams, which moved him into third place all-time in wins by a Division I coach.
- It was the first time UNC ever played an opponent in the ACC Tournament it did not face in the regular season. It was the second time in ACC history that occurred. In 1967, Duke and South Carolina played in the ACC Tournament after not playing in the regular season.

- Bacot had his third double-double in the last four games and his seventh of the season with 17 points and 13 rebounds, adding a season-high four blocks.
- It was Bacot's second consecutive game with 13 rebounds (also vs. Notre Dame). He is the first Tar Heel to do that in consecutive ACC Tournament games since Mitch Kupchak in 1975.
- Bacot was scoreless until 1:54 left in the first half, when he scored UNC's last four points of the half. He scored 10 straight points for UNC in the second half to give the Tar Heels a 68-58 lead.
- Bacot grabbed six of his 13 rebounds on the offensive boards. It was the fifth time this season he had six or more in a game.
- Black scored all eight of his points in the second half (the most he's scored in a game since he had 12 at Duke on 2/6), made two three-pointers (was 1 for 19 from three since he made 4 for 4 at Miami on 1/5) and tied for the team lead with three assists.

- Carolina shot a season-low 33.8 percent from the floor.

- The five threes by FSU were the fewest by an opponent in UNC's 10 losses this season.
- Florida State scored 19 points off Tar Heel turnovers. In three games this season FSU scored 66 points off UNC turnovers.
- Largely due to turnovers, FSU scored 19 fastbreak points in this game and 59 in three games vs. UNC this season.

1957 NCAA CHAMPIONS

North Carolina's march toward the NCAA championship in the 1957 Final Four provided legendary head coach Frank McGuire with the defining moment of his career and the Tar Heel faithful with more than a few tense moments.

Battle-torn and weary, the Tar Heels faced a seemingly insurmountable challenge as they headed into the third overtime period against Kansas in the national championship game.

Having already taken three overtime periods to defeat Michigan State in the semifinals, the Tar Heels found themselves without national player of the year Lennie Rosenbluth, who had fouled out in the waning moments of regulation. They were playing a Kansas team led by Hall of Famer Wilt Chamberlain in the not so friendly confines of Kansas City, Mo.

The Tar Heels fought on without Rosenbluth and found themselves behind by one point in the final seconds of the third overtime. After a missed shot, the ball landed in the hands of junior center Joe Quigg near the top of the key. All that stood between him and the national title was Chamberlain.

Quigg drove the lane, drawing a foul from Chamberlain with six seconds remaining. After a Carolina time out, Quigg, a 72 percent free throw shooter, calmly stepped to the line and drained both shots, securing a 54-53 victory and Carolina's second national championship. Carolina finished the season a perfect 32-0 en route to the Tar Heels' first NCAA championship.

Rosenbluth had 20 points and five rebounds in the championship game and Quigg scored 10 points and garnered nine rebounds.

Carolina had its fair share of overtime experience entering the Final Four, securing an overtime victory over South Carolina and a double overtime victory over Maryland in the regular season.

That experience may have been the difference as the Tar Heels continually came through with clutch plays throughout the Final Four. In the semifinal, neither team was able to open more than a six-point lead as Michigan State tested Carolina's mettle throughout the game.

Junior forward Pete Brennan kept Carolina's championship hopes alive when he nailed a baseline jumper with three seconds remaining in the first overtime to extend the game to another period. Both teams struggled in the second overtime, scoring only one bucket each. Carolina finally pulled away in the third overtime period scoring the first six points and holding on to a 74-70 victory.

Rosenbluth was the star of the 1957 squad. His 27 points and 8.6 rebounds a game in regular season play led the Tar Heels to the ACC championship and the NCAA tournament berth. Four of the victories came over fellow Big Four and ACC team Wake Forest, with whom Carolina had developed an intense rivalry.

At the end of his senior season, Rosenbluth held on to every major Carolina basketball record except for free-throw percentage and total rebounds in a season.

The championship season was Carolina's only trip to the Final Four under the tutelage of Frank McGuire, who left in 1961 to coach in the NBA. He later went on to coach at South Carolina. In nine years, McGuire led the Tar Heels to three Top 10 finishes and six Top 20 finishes.

Every Carolina Basketball fan remembers "The Shot." It is the most famous play in Tar Heel history and one of the most famous in college athletics. It won Dean Smith his first national championship and launched Michael Jordan as the greatest player in the sport's history.

Eric "Sleepy" Floyd had just hit a jumper in the lane to give Georgetown a 62-61 lead as 61,612 fans looked on at the New Orleans Superdome. Carolina called a timeout with 32 seconds remaining. Smith instructed point guard Jimmy Black to draw the Hoya zone defense to one side of the court and look to get the ball inside to James Worthy. But Black couldn't get the ball to Worthy. Smith had designed the play so that if that happened, Black could swing the ball to an open man on the far side of the court. Black found that open man, freshman Michael Jordan.

Georgetown's Fred Brown got the ball near mid-court and looked for an open teammate. He passed the ball in Floyd's direction, but instead found Worthy, who raced downcourt with the ball to seal the victory. It was appropriate that Worthy clinched the win, since he had already muscled and finessed his way through the Hoya defense en route to five dunks and 28 points.

Worthy was not intimidated by the tenacious defense of Hoya freshman center Patrick Ewing, who logged two blocked shots and three steals to go with his 23 points and 11 rebounds. Throughout the game, Worthy challenged the Hoyas frontline and hit 13 of his 17 field goal attempts.

Carolina advanced to the title game with a 68-63 semifinal victory over Houston. Sam Perkins had 25 points and 10 rebounds.

UNC began and finished the year ranked No. 1 in the country in the Associated Press poll. In fact, Carolina held the No. 1 ranking for all but five weeks in 1981-82.

The Tar Heels posted a 32-2 record, losing only to Wake Forest at home when Perkins was sick and did not play and at Virginia. Carolina did beat the Cavaliers, 47-45, in the ACC Tournament championship game in Greensboro. Worthy had 16 points and Matt Doherty had 11 points and four assists. Carolina led 34-31 at the half, but the game is most remembered for the Tar Heels using a delay game in the second half. Leading 44-43 with 7:34 to play, Carolina held the ball. Doherty hit three free throws in the last 28 seconds to win the game.

Top-ranked and top-seeded Carolina then survived a scare from James Madison in the first round of the NCAA Tournament, beating the Dukes, 52-50, in Charlotte. A 74-69 win over Alabama and a 70-60 triumph over Villanova in Raleigh's Reynolds Coliseum sent the Tar Heels to New Orleans for the Final Four.

Senior guard Jimmy Black was one of five starters in double figures in the regional final win over Villanova. Black had 11 points and 10 assists.

DEAN SMITH:

"We had three starters back from the year before, plus Matt Doherty, who I counted as a co-starter in 1981. Two of our best games all year were in New Orleans against Houston and Georgetown. Jordan had his best game as a freshman in the final, but Worthy was the obvious MVP. His play gets overshadowed because of Michael's shot. And Perkins was a true hero for his play against Olajuwon in the semifinals. He was sensational.

"The play was No. 1 to post up Worthy, then have Perkins come in behind him. Or you could go crosscourt to the wing for Michael and he was wide open from 17-18 feet. It looked good, I was right in line with him. Then we we put on our scramble defense. Worthy was out of position, but Jordan stopped the pass that made Fred Brown throw it away."

1993 NCAA CHAMPIONS

Dean Smith had been there before. The last time his Tar Heels walked on the Superdome floor, they walked off as NCAA champions.

Now, after a grueling ACC season that included five other Top 25 teams; after a tough road through the East Regional bracket that required an overtime victory to escape the final; after defeating a Roy Williams-coached Kansas squad that had beaten the Tar Heels just two years prior in the national semifinal—Carolina was back on the Superdome floor playing for the national championship.

The 1993 Tar Heels were ready. Center Eric Montross and senior forward George Lynch anchored the team and shooting guard Donald Williams provided the spark from the outside. Point guard Derrick Phelps ran the offense and a handful of role players brought everything together in typical Dean Smith fashion.

Michigan was ready too, though. The raucous Wolverines, led by vocal center Chris Webber and the rest of the “Fab Five,” had lost the championship game in 1992 and were hungry to redeem themselves. They won a hard-fought overtime battle against Jamal Mashburn and the Kentucky Wildcats in the national semifinal, 81-78, and were confident they would return to Ann Arbor with a championship.

The styles of the two teams couldn't have been any further apart. The Tar Heels were a traditional Dean Smith team — talented, disciplined and focused. The Wolverines had brought a brash, new feel to the game, famous for their black shoes, baggy shorts and playground style of play.

The teams battled back and forth throughout the game. Michigan led by 10 in the first half, but Carolina rallied for a 42-36 lead at intermission. The Wolverines built a 67-63 lead with 4:30 left to play, but the Tar Heels scored nine unanswered points to take a 72-67 lead with 1:03 to play.

Trailing by four, Williams began the 9-0 run with a three-pointer, then Phelps hit a fastbreak layup to give UNC the lead with 3:07 to play. Baskets by Lynch and Montross upped the lead to five with a minute to go.

Michigan responded with a Ray Jackson jump shot and a Chris Webber put-back to bring the Wolverines back to within 72-71 with 36 seconds to play.

Carolina junior forward Pat Sullivan was fouled with 20 seconds left and went to the line for a one-and-one. Sullivan connected on the first, but missed the second and Webber got the rebound with the Wolverines trailing 73-71.

Webber stumbled and appeared to travel, but the officials made no call. He then dribbled past halfcourt and found himself surrounded by the Tar Heels and called a timeout. However, Michigan did not have any timeouts remaining and the officials called a technical foul on the Michigan bench.

Williams hit two free throws and Carolina marched on to a 77-71 victory. It was only appropriate that Williams stood at the line at the end of the game, as he dominated the Final Four en route to Most Outstanding Player honors. Williams made five of seven three pointers and scored 25 points in both the national semifinal and championship games.

The Tar Heels finished the season 34-4, winning 18 consecutive games at one point. Carolina had even faced Michigan early on in the season at the Rainbow Classic and lost, 79-78, courtesy a last-second shot from Wolverine point guard Jalen Rose.

The 18-game win streak was snapped by a 77-75 loss to Georgia Tech in the ACC Tournament championship game. The Tar Heels played that game without Phelps, who injured his back when he was fouled from behind on a layup attempt in the ACC semifinal against Virginia.

Despite the loss to the Yellow Jackets, Carolina was No. 1 in the East Regional. Wins over East Carolina, Rhode Island and Arkansas set up a regional championship against Cincinnati in the Meadowlands. The Bearcats had played in the Final Four in 1992.

Nick Van Exel hit six three-pointers in the first half and the Bearcats built a 29-14 lead with 7:08 left in the opening half, but the Tar Heels rallied to pull within one at halftime.

In the second half, Phelps clamped down on Van Exel, limiting him to just one field goal.

Carolina led late in regulation, but Tarrance Gibson's driving layup with 35 seconds to play tied the game. The Tar Heels had a chance to win at the buzzer, but Brian Reese's dunk attempt after an out-of-bounds play with 0.8 seconds left ricocheted off the back iron.

Williams starred in overtime, hitting back-to-back three-pointers and the Tar Heels hung on for a 75-68 win.

Lynch was the heart and soul of the team and recorded double-doubles in each of the last four NCAA Tournament victories.

DEAN SMITH:

“We had a such great leader in George Lynch and our team had a lot of confidence. We were very poised. I know I had a lot of confidence in Derrick Phelps and Lynch. The last four games all were close games. Arkansas went down to the wire, Cincinnati we should have won in regulation, but won in overtime. Michigan was a great game with Donald Williams hitting key shots. So many of those games could have gone either way.”

Final 4 MVP DONALD WILLIAMS scored 25 points in the semifinal vs. Kansas and 25 in the championship game vs. Michigan.

2005 NCAA CHAMPIONS

It began with an upset loss to Santa Clara and ended by beating No. 1 ranked Illinois in St. Louis. Along the way, the Tar Heels went 33-4, won the ACC regular-season title with a 14-2 record and defied the experts who said they were too selfish to win a national title.

Instead, led by seniors Jawad Williams, Jackie Manuel and Melvin Scott, and under the tutelage of second-year head coach Roy Williams, the Tar Heels became the best team in the nation. Carolina led the country in scoring and assists and held the opposition to 40 percent shooting.

Center Sean May arguably became the finest player in the country, racking up eight straight double-doubles and averaging 17.5 points and 10.7 rebounds.

Point guard Raymond Felton joined May on the All-ACC first team and won the Bob Cousy Award as the best point guard in the country. He led the ACC in assists and hit 44 percent from three-point range.

Carolina lost at Wake Forest and Duke, but clinched its first outright conference title since 1993 with a 75-73 win over the Blue Devils in the regular-season finale. May had 26 points and 24 rebounds and Marvin Williams capped a rally from nine points behind with a three-point play with 17 seconds remaining.

UNC survived a first round scare in the ACC Tournament from Clemson in large part thanks to Felton's career-high 29 points. But Georgia Tech bounced the Tar Heels from in the semifinals behind Will Bynum's 35 points.

Carolina earned a No. 1 seed and opened NCAA play against Oakland in front of a raucous crowd in Charlotte. UNC took out any lingering frustrations from the ACC Tournament in the first half, shooting 73 percent from the floor en route to a 59-33 advantage. Marvin Williams and Sean May combined for 39 points and 16 rebounds and Carolina opened its title run with a 96-68 win.

Iowa State was next in round two. Leading 36-33, UNC closed the first half with nine unanswered points. Iowa State never came within single digits in the second half. May had 24 points and 17 rebounds and Marvin Williams added 20 points and 15 boards.

Fifth-seeded Villanova gave Carolina a stern test in Syracuse in the Sweet 16. The Wildcats went to a four-guard offense and built a 21-9 lead midway through the first half behind Randy Foye's hot shooting. May scored 12 of UNC's 29 points as the Tar Heels clawed to within four at the break. UNC took the lead for good on a McCants three with 7:20 to play and extended its lead to 10 points with 3:45 remaining.

But Felton fouled out with 2:13 to play and the Wildcats pulled to within 64-62 with 40 seconds left. Scott, who took over the point, canned two free throws for a four-point lead. Villanova made one free throw and had a chance to tie, but Allen Ray was whistled for a travel with nine seconds to play.

May dominated the regional final against Wisconsin with 29 points and 12 rebounds. The game was tied at 44 at halftime, but UNC went on a 14-0 run early in the second half. McCants had a key block and three-pointer in the final three minutes to secure the win.

Michigan State led UNC by five at half-time in the national semifinals, but UNC out-scored the Spartans, 54-33, in the second half to post an 87-71 win. May scored 22 and Jawad Williams had 20. The Tar Heels held Michigan State to 34 percent shooting.

No. 2-ranked Carolina squared off against top-ranked Illinois in the championship. The Illini had been ranked No. 1 since Dec. 6th. But the Tar Heels built a 40-27 halftime lead behind 14 points from McCants and eight points and six assists from Felton.

The Illini made 5 of 19 threes in the first half, but got hot and tied the game at 65-65 with 5:34 to play. Felton knocked home a long three moments later, but the game was tied again at 70 with 2:40 to play.

The Tar Heels took the lead for good with 1:27 to play as Marvin Williams tipped in a missed shot. Illinois missed a pair of three-pointers; then Felton stole a pass. Felton hit three free throws in the final seconds to give Carolina a 75-70 win and Roy Williams his first NCAA title. May, the Final Four MVP, had 26 points and 10 rebounds.

ROY WILLIAMS:

"I had watched One Shining Moment for so many years, and I had always wanted to watch it from the arena, from the floor, when it was about my team. It was a moment where I reached up to wipe a tear away because as a coach, that is the moment. That's what you dream about."

The Tar Heels began 2008-09 with lofty expectations as five starters returned from a team that won a school-record 36 games and a trip to the Final Four the previous year. Carolina was an unprecedented unanimous No. 1 pick in both the media and coaches' polls.

Injuries took an early toll on the championship hopes, however, as 2008 National Player of the Year Tyler Hansbrough, senior Marcus Ginyard and freshman Tyler Zeller all saw time on the injured list early in the season. Hansbrough would miss four games with a stress reaction in his leg and ankle sprain, Ginyard would play in only three games all year because of a stress fracture in his foot, and Zeller suffered a broken wrist in the second game that sidelined him for 23 contests.

The Tar Heels retained their top ranking through early January by winning their first 13 games, routing Kentucky and Michigan State and winning the Maui Invitational along the way. On December 18th, Hansbrough set the UNC scoring record, surpassing Phil Ford's mark against Evansville.

Carolina lost its first two games in ACC play to Boston College and Wake Forest.

The Tar Heels then won 13 of their next 14 games to capture the ACC regular-season crown with a 13-3 record. Ty Lawson knocked off Florida State with a buzzer-beating three-pointer, scored 21 second-half points in a 101-87 win at Duke, hit numerous clutch three-pointers in a close win at Miami and earned ACC Player of the Year honors. Lawson also earned first-team All-America accolades and won the Cousy Award as the top point guard in the country. He became the first point guard to be ACC Player of the Year in 31 years.

Lawson severely injured a toe two days before UNC's Senior Day win over Duke. He played in that game but was unable to play in the ACC Tournament as Florida State knocked the Tar Heels out in the semifinals.

Carolina was a No. 1 seed in the NCAA Tournament South Regional. Wayne Ellington began his stellar NCAA Tournament with 25 points and Carolina held Radford under 28 percent shooting from the floor as the Tar Heels overwhelmed the Highlanders 101-58 in the opening round. In the first half, Hansbrough set the ACC career scoring record, breaking the mark held by Duke's J.J. Redick.

LSU in the second round proved to be the most challenging test en route to the title. Carolina led by nine at the half, but the Tigers surged ahead by five points early in the second period. Lawson, who did not play against Radford and was a gametime decision to play against LSU, was spectacular. He scored 21 second-half points, leading Carolina to an 84-70 win. Lawson and Ellington scored 23 points apiece and Danny Green hit a key three-pointer to help UNC advance.

The Tar Heels dominated both games in the regional in Memphis, beating Gonzaga in the Sweet 16 98-77 behind Hansbrough's 24 points and 10 rebounds. In the regional final, UNC never trailed, toppling Player of the Year Blake Griffin and Oklahoma 72-60. Lawson earned regional MVP honors as Carolina shot 61.9 percent from the field in the second half against the Sooners.

The Tar Heels beat Villanova in the national semifinals, in which UNC was appearing for the third time in five years. Lawson had 22 points and eight assists and Hansbrough added his 47th career double-double with 18 points and 11 rebounds. The Tar Heels led 49-40 at the half, but the Wildcats closed to within five early in the second. That would prove to be the closest any opponent got to UNC in the second half of the last four NCAA Tournament games. Green hit a three, Lawson scored on a fast break layup and the lead shot back to double figures. That win setup a rematch with Michigan State, whom the Tar Heels beat 98-63 in December.

The championship game was all Carolina. Played in front of nearly 73,000 fans, most of whom wore Michigan State green, the Tar Heels scored 55 first-half points and led by 21 at the break, both NCAA records. Ellington scored 17 points in the opening stanza and earned Most Outstanding Player honors. Hansbrough added 18 points and Lawson dominated on both ends of the floor with 21 points, six assists and a championship game record eight steals. The game was never closer than 13 points in the second half as Carolina won, 89-72.

ROY WILLIAMS:

"My hats are off to the guys in our locker room, because they took me on one fantastic ride, and it's something I'll never forget."

Three starters – point guard Joel Berry II and forwards Justin Jackson and Kennedy Meeks – returned from the 2016 team that came within seconds of winning a national championship.

The Tar Heels began the year ranked sixth in the nation and opened with seven straight wins, including a win over Wisconsin to win the Maui Jim Invitational.

Non-conference losses to Indiana and Kentucky (103-100 in Las Vegas in which Jackson scored a career-high 34 points) and a stunning ACC opening defeat at Georgia Tech dropped UNC out of the Top 10 heading into the new Carolina went 8-1 in ACC play in January, highlighted by an overtime win at Clemson, a 107-56 trouncing of NC State and a 96-83 win over ninth-ranked Florida State.

The Tar Heels had four wins over Top-20 teams in their final eight regular-season games, including a 90-83 win over Duke in the regular-season finale when Berry went 5 for 5 from three-point range and scored 28 points. UNC went 14-4 in league play to win the ACC regular-season for the eighth time in the last 13 years.

UNC earned a No. 1 seed in the NCAA South Regional and beat Texas Southern by 39 points in the first round. In the second round, UNC trailed Arkansas, 65-60, but out-scored the Razorbacks 12-0 over the final three minutes to win by seven. It was the largest come-from-behind win that late in a game by UNC in its NCAA Tournament history.

Berry and Jackson combined for 50 points and Luke Maye had 16 points and 12 rebounds in a 92-80 win over Butler in the Sweet 16 to set up a 1 vs. 2 seed matchup against Kentucky for the right to advance to the Final Four.

Jackson led all scorers in the regional final with 19 points, and Meeks grabbed a career-high 17 rebounds, but it was Maye, a sophomore who averaged about 13 minutes a game off the bench, who hit the winning shot and earned South Regional MVP honors.

Carolina led by five at the half, but the Cats pulled ahead by five with less than five minutes to play. The Tar Heels surged ahead by seven, but Kentucky's Malik Monk tied the game with just over seven seconds to play on a three-pointer.

Meeks quickly in-bounded the ball to Theo Pinson, who raced upcourt and pitched the ball to Maye, who sank a 19-footer with 0.3 seconds to play for a 75-73 victory. Maye finished with a career-high 17 points.

Carolina became the first team to play in 20 Final Fours. In the semifinals, the Tar Heels held on for a 77-76 win over Oregon behind 25 points and 14 rebounds by Meeks and 22 points by Jackson. UNC led the entire second half, but needed a pair of offensive rebounds by Pinson and Meeks in the last five seconds after missed free throws to secure the win.

In the championship game, UNC played second-ranked Gonzaga, which came into the contest 37-1 on the season.

Berry had a game-high 22 points and six assists, Isaiah Hicks hit a key basket with 26 seconds to play and Meeks had an offensive rebound, block and steal in the final minute to lead UNC to the title. Carolina finished the season number one in the nation in rebounding, offensive rebounding and rebound margin, so it was appropriate that Hicks' basket came after an offensive rebound by Meeks. That basket gave UNC 20 second-chance points in the title game; the Tar Heels were 17-0 for the season when scoring 20 or more second-chance points.

The Tar Heels held their six opponents in the NCAA Tournament to 39.6 percent shooting from the floor.

Jackson earned consensus first-team All-America honors and was the ACC Player of the Year. He led the team in scoring at 18.3 points per game and set a single-season UNC record with 105 three-point field goals. Berry became the first player to score 20 or more points in consecutive national championship games (he had 20 against Villanova in 2016) since Hall of Famer Bill Walton for UCLA in 1972-73, Jackson and freshman Tony Bradley were selected in the first round of the 2017 NBA Draft; Jackson was the 15th pick and Bradley the 28th.

"One of the neatest things was how our players reacted after we had pretty much clinched the championship game victory over Gonzaga. It was a stunning moment. They had invested so much sweat, attention to detail, and love for each other that you could see the enormity of winning the championship just one year after losing in the last second, and it was overwhelming to them."

(non-national championship season summaries listed below)

Carolina finished first in Southern Conference play with a 13-1 record, but was beaten by Wake Forest in the SoCon Tournament semifinals. Duke won the postseason title, but the NCAA Committee selected Carolina to represent District 3 in the NCAA Tournament at New York's Madison Square Garden.

NYU was favored to beat UNC in the East Regional semifinal, but 27-year-old Bones McKinney scored 11 points to lead Carolina to a 57-49 win. McKinney originally played at NC State, but enrolled at Carolina in January 1946 after being discharged from the U.S. Army.

John "Hook" Dillon, a sophomore from Georgia and Carolina's leading scorer with 12.9 points per game, and Bob Paxton led Carolina past Ohio State in the East Regional final. The Buckeyes led by five with less than three minutes to play, but Paxton sent the game into overtime with a jump shot with under 20 seconds to play. Dillon scored the key shot in overtime as UNC held on for a 60-57 win.

Defending national champion Oklahoma A&M beat Carolina, 43-40, in the championship game, despite Dillon's 16 points. Seven-foot center Bob Kurland had 23 points to lead the Aggies.

Junior forward Larry Miller, the ACC Player of the Year, and five heralded sophomores led the Tar Heels to a 22-6 record, an ACC title and first Final Four under head coach Dean Smith.

Carolina reached the Final Four with a 96-80 victory over Boston College in the Eastern Regional final. Senior forward Bob Lewis earned regional MVP honors after scoring 31 points in the championship game. Miller added 22 points and center Rusty Clark posted a double-double with 18 points and 18 rebounds.

The Tar Heels lost to Dayton, 76-62, in the national semifinals in Louisville, Ky. Flyer forward Don May scored 34 points and grabbed 15 rebounds. Clark had 19 points and 11 rebounds and Miller scored 13 points and grabbed 13 rebounds.

"The big thing is we had to win the ACC Tournament before we could even go to the NCAA Tournament," says Coach Smith. "I was concerned about how we would do in the NCAAs in overcoming the excitement of winning the ACC Tournament. We did go to the Final Four with three sophomore starters that year. That was a thrilling time."

Carolina beat Ohio State, 80-66, to advance to the national championship game. Junior forward Bill Bunting had 17 points and 12 rebounds and Miller logged 20 points and six rebounds. Miller had earned All-America honors and was the MVP at the ACC Tournament for the second year in a row.

Carolina played defending champion UCLA for the championship in the Los Angeles Sports Arena. National Player of the Year Lew Alcindor scored 34 points and pulled down 16 rebounds to lead the Bruins to a 78-55 win, their fourth title in five years. Miller led the Tar Heels with 14 points and six rebounds.

"We were ready this time for the NCAAs, based on the year before," says Coach Smith. "We were great against undefeated St. Bonaventure with Bob Lanier in the opening round. The field was not seeded in those days. We faced Lew Alcindor and UCLA in the championship game. I do think that was the best college team I had ever seen to that date."

First-team All-America Charles Scott led Carolina with 22.3 points and 7.1 rebounds per game. Carolina advanced to the NCAA Tournament with a stellar comeback victory over Duke in the ACC finals. Led by Scott, who scored 40 points and nabbed five rebounds, the Tar Heels rallied from a nine-point halftime deficit to defeat the Blue Devils, 85-74.

Scott had 22 points, nine rebounds and six assists against Duquesne and 32 points, six rebounds and four assists against Davidson in the regional final. He hit the game-winner as time expired to give the Tar Heels the 87-85 win over Lefty Driesell's Wildcats to send Carolina to the Final Four.

The Boilermakers' Rick Mount scored 36 and Bill Keller added 20 to lead Purdue to a 92-65 victory in the national semifinals.

The Tar Heels earned an NCAA bid with a 73-64 victory over Maryland in the ACC Championship, avenging an earlier 79-77 overtime loss to the Terps.

George Karl had 18 points and Dennis Wuycik added 16 to lead UNC to a 92-69 rout of South Carolina in the opening round of the NCAA Tournament. Wuycik (18), Robert McAdoo (17) and Karl (16) led UNC to a 73-59 win over Penn in the regional final.

Carolina lost to Florida State, 79-75, in the Final Four. McAdoo had 24 points and 15 rebounds, but his teammates made 19 of 51 shots from the floor, and the Tar Heels could not overcome a 13-point halftime deficit. Ron King led Florida State with 22 points.

"This was one of our great teams," says Coach Smith. "We played extremely well to get to the Final Four, paying back South Carolina for beating us in the ACC Tournament the year before. We beat a very good Penn team. We were ranked No. 2 in the nation and UCLA was No.1. I think we looked past Florida State ahead to UCLA. McAdoo fouled out with 13 minutes to play."

Injuries dominated the storylines in the incredible run to the championship game.

In the second round, Phil Ford scored 27 points to lead the Tar Heels, playing without an injured Walter Davis, to a 69-66 win over Purdue. On St. Patrick's Day, the Tar Heels trailed Notre Dame by 14 in the second half, but John Kuester had 14 points, eight assists and seven steals and Ford scored 29 points, including two free throws with two seconds remaining, to earn a 79-77 win.

Davis, despite a broken finger, scored 21 points as the Tar Heels beat Kentucky, 79-72, in the East Regional final.

The Tar Heels trailed UNLV, 49-43, at the half, in the national semifinals, but the Tar Heels prevailed, 84-83, behind freshman Mike O'Koren's 31 points and eight rebounds. Davis made all seven of his field goal attempts and finished with 19 points.

In the championship, Al McGuire's Warriors built a 39-27 lead, but Carolina surged ahead in the second half. However, Butch Lee (19), Bo Ellis and Jim Boylan (14 apiece) led Marquette to the title.

"Coach Guthridge called that our most amazing year," says Coach Smith. "We had more huggers that year – that means when the game is over we are all hugging in the dressing room. We lost our All-America center Tom LaGarde in February; then we had a great run. Walter couldn't shoot against Notre Dame, but Phil happened to make free throws even with his hyper-extended elbow. We held the ball against Kentucky in the second half to go to the Final Four. Then O'Koren came on and was great against UNLV. We lost to a really good Marquette team. Jimmy Boylan was terrific against us in the final – he once called wanting to transfer to Carolina, but I suggested he call Coach McGuire instead."

The Tar Heels swept through the West Regional with little trouble, beating Pittsburgh, Utah and Kansas State. Sam Perkins had 15 points, 11 rebounds and four blocks in the regional semifinals and 16 points and 11 boards in the regional final against Kansas State. Wood was outstanding against the Wildcats, scoring 21 points and pulling down 17 rebounds.

The national semifinal was a clash between the ACC regular season champion Virginia and ACC Tournament champion UNC.

This time, the Tar Heels kept Ralph Sampson in check. Sampson scored only 11 points and Virginia could not find an answer for Wood, who scored 39 points and added 10 rebounds. The game was tied at 27 at halftime, but Carolina outscored Virginia, 51-38, in the second half to earn a 78-65 victory.

Bob Knight's Indiana Hoosiers beat the Tar Heels 63-50 in the national championship game. The game was played only hours after an assassination attempt on President Ronald Reagan. Isiah Thomas led the Hoosiers with 23 points. Wood and Perkins combined for 29 points for UNC.

Toronto-born and Bahamas-raised Rick Fox was joined in the starting lineup by seniors Pete Chilcutt (center) and King Rice (point guard), junior guard Hubert Davis and sophomore forward George Lynch.

Carolina cruised to the East Regional final, beating Northeastern, Villanova and Eastern Michigan, all by double-digits, then beat Temple, 75-72, in the New Jersey Meadowlands to return to the Final Four for the first time since 1982. Davis and Fox each scored 19 points and Rice added 12 points and seven assists to get by the Owls. Temple guard Mark Macon scored 31 points, but missed a 30-footer at the buzzer that would have sent the game into overtime.

Kansas, coached by former UNC assistant Roy Williams, beat the Tar Heels, 79-73, in the national semifinals in the Hoosier Dome in Indianapolis. Davis led all scorers with 25 points, but Carolina shot just 38.4 percent for the game. Adonis Jordan led the Jayhawks with 16 points and seven assists.

"We were glad to get back to the Final Four in 1991," says Coach Smith. "We had great leadership with King Rice, Rick Fox and Pete Chilcutt. We didn't play well in Indianapolis against Kansas. We hadn't been to the Final Four in a while and I think we went back to being happy to be there."

UNC earned the No. 2 seed in the Southeast Region after losing in overtime to Randolph Childress, Tim Duncan and Wake Forest in the ACC championship game. Carolina trailed Murray State by a point at halftime in the first round, but won 80-70 behind Jerry Stackhouse's 25 points, 11 rebounds and five assists. Wins over Iowa State and Allen Iverson-led Georgetown set up a regional final between No. 2 UNC and No. 1 Kentucky in Birmingham, Ala., the heart of SEC country.

Stackhouse was brilliant with 18 points, 12 boards and six assists as Carolina won, 74-61. Donald Williams had 18 points, Rasheed Wallace added 12 and the Tar Heels held Kentucky to 28 percent shooting from the floor (7 of 36 from three-point range).

Defending NCAA champion Arkansas beat the Tar Heels, 75-68, in the national semifinals in Seattle. Stackhouse scored 18 points, but could only play 28 minutes due to a deep thigh bruise, an injury he suffered 12 seconds into the game.

"That was a special year," says Coach Smith. "We lost five seniors and were not deep, but Stackhouse and Wallace were a year older and very talented. Before the regional final, we told the team Kentucky had their celebration party scheduled, and Stackhouse held up his hand and said, 'Yeah, I'm going to go to it and celebrate.' He was so fired up. What a great competitor. Kentucky was very good. It was tough winning in Birmingham. But I was really worried about stopping Allen Iverson and beating Georgetown. You never know what would have happened if Stackhouse had not gotten hurt against Arkansas."

Carolina began ACC play with three consecutive losses for the first time ever. The second of those losses was a Smith Center debacle in which Carolina led Maryland by 22 in the second half but lost by 10.

However, the Tar Heels ran off an improbable 16-game win streak, won the ACC Tournament and earned another trip to the Final Four.

After sneaking by Fairfield in the first round, the Tar Heels beat Colorado, 73-56, in Winston-Salem to give Smith his 877th win, breaking Adolph Rupp's all-time record.

All-America forward Antawn Jamison scored 21 points and grabbed eight rebounds in the East Region semifinal against California. Shammond Williams scored 22 points and Vince Carter notched 18 points and seven rebounds against Louisville in the East Regional final.

JERRY STACKHOUSE was the MVP of the 1995 South Regional after leading UNC to wins over Georgetown and Kentucky.

Carolina shot poorly in Indianapolis in the Final Four, connecting on a season-low 31.1 percent from the floor, and was beaten by Arizona, 66-58. Carter had 21 points and Jamison had 18 points and 11 rebounds. Arizona guards Miles Simon and Mike Bibby scored 24 and 20, respectively.

"Fairfield was a remarkable game," says Smith. "That was probably our best offensive game since Loyola Marymount (1988), but they kept making threes. There was too much going on about the number of wins and the record. I thought it could affect us against Colorado. Then I was really impressed with our team against Louisville. We had a big lead and they cut it to six and I took a timeout. I said, 'We could let them have it, we've had a pretty good year,' and Ademola Okulaja spoke up and said 'What do you mean?' And we went on to beat them pretty badly."

Most of the players from the 1997 Final Four squad returned, including All-America candidates Jamison, Carter and Williams and ACC assist leader Ed Cota.

Although the players were the same, Bill Guthridge was in his rookie season as head coach. Dean Smith resigned in October and turned over the reins to Guthridge, who was an assistant under Smith for the previous 30 years.

Jamison averaged 22.9 points and 10.2 rebounds to win ACC and National Player of the Year honors. Carolina was No. 1 in the country for eight weeks and regained the top spot in the final poll after an 83-68 win over Duke in the ACC Tournament championship game.

Carolina beat UNC Charlotte in overtime in the second round behind Williams' 32 points, then toppled rising powers Michigan State and Connecticut in Greensboro by double-digit margins.

Utah built a 13-point halftime lead in the national semifinal and Carolina could never pull even, despite Carter's 21 points. The Tar Heels shot just 39.1 percent in the game, and Jamison was held to 14 points in his final collegiate contest.

The Tar Heels entered NCAA Tournament play as a No. 8 seed after a disappointing season that included a four-game losing streak and a first-round exit in the ACC Tournament. The No. 8 seed equaled the lowest in UNC history.

Center Brendan Haywood scored a career high 28 points and grabbed 15 rebounds to lead the Tar Heels to an 84-70 victory over Missouri in the first round.
