HARRISBURG, PA – The U.S. Army Harrisburg Recruiting Battalion is proud to honor York Catholic's James Dougherty as the Army Iron Man of the Week as Pennsylvania's best two-way high school football player. Dougherty scored 25 points in York Catholic's 33-0 win over Hanover. Dougherty had two rushing touchdowns (4, 54), threw a 52-yard scoring strike, kicked a 20-yard field-goal, and booted four extra-points in the victory. As a weekly winner, Dougherty is a finalist for the Army Iron Man of the Year for Pennsylvania.

"The Sports Flash" (TSF) Radio Network will accept nominations each week from high school football coaches, athletic directors, media members, and high school football fans. Each week, high school football fans from throughout the battalion's recruiting territory will have the opportunity to vote for the winner of the Army Iron Man of the Week. At the end of the regular season, fans will vote for the Army Iron Man of the Year from among the weekly winners. Throughout the campaign, fans can visit www.TheSportsFlash.com to vote for the weekly winner; sign-up for weekly "Iron Man" updates; download the audio feature; and much more.
