MOODY AFB, GA - The U.S. Air Force's 336th Recruiting Squadron is proud to announce that Lakeside's Chris Hall is the U.S. Air Force High Flyer of the Week as Georgia's best boy's high school basketball player. Hall averaged 26.5 points per game in the first week of the season, opening with 25 in a win over Washington County (61-55) and added 29 points in an overtime win over Grovetown (55-44). As a weekly winner, Hall is a finalist for the U.S. Air Force High Flyer of the Year.

"The Sports Flash" (TSF) Radio Network will accept nominations each week from high school basketball coaches, athletic directors, the media, and high school basketball fans. High school basketball fans will vote online for the weekly winner. Each weekly winner will be a finalist for the U.S. Air Force High Flyer of the Year. Throughout the campaign, fans can visit the official U.S. Air Force High Flyers site at www.TheSportsFlash.com to stay updated on the campaign, vote for the weekly winner, and much more.

For the U.S. Air Force, people are its most valuable asset. Without them, even the most advanced systems are rendered useless. The U.S. Air Force recruits quality airmen from a cross-section of America to meet the Air Force's ever-changing needs. The Air Force has more than 140 enlisted career opportunities available for qualified men and women. For more information about the enlisted, officer, and healthcare professional job opportunities in the U.S. Air Force, contact your local Air Force recruiter.
