MOODY AFB, GA - The U.S. Air Force's 336th Recruiting Squadron is honored to announce that Salem High School's Ayanna Mitchell has been voted the U.S. Air Force High Flyer of the Week as the best girl's high school basketball player in Georgia. Mitchell averaged 19 points per game in three games at the Lanier Thanksgiving Tournament, scoring 25 points in a 43-32 win over Lumpkin County. Last week, Mitchell scored 25 points in a 47-36 win over Clarke Central and added 23 points with 13 rebounds and five steals in a 64-19 win over Henry County. As a weekly winner, Mitchell is a finalist for the U.S. Air Force High Flyer of the Year.

"The Sports Flash" (TSF) Radio Network will accept nominations each week from high school basketball coaches, athletic directors, the media, and high school basketball fans. High school basketball fans will vote online for the weekly winner. Each weekly winner will be a finalist for the U.S. Air Force High Flyer of the Year. Throughout the campaign, fans can visit the official U.S. Air Force High Flyers site at www.TheSportsFlash.com to stay updated on the campaign, vote for the weekly winner, and much more.

For the U.S. Air Force, people are its most valuable asset. Without them, even the most advanced systems are rendered useless.
