

ARMY STRONG.™

U.S. Army Asheville Recruiting Company launches North Carolina Passing League (NCPL)

The seven-on-seven passing tournament to feature high school teams from the company's recruiting territory

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
12 MARCH 2012

CONTACT: Mike Sinnott, TSF Radio Network
(517) 927-4570 or TheSportsFlash@aol.com

ASHEVILLE, NC - The U.S. Army Asheville Recruiting Company is proud to announce the launch of the North Carolina Passing League (NCPL), a seven-on-seven high school football passing league that will begin play in the late spring/early summer of 2012. The NCPL will focus on the high schools in the recruiting company's territory in western North Carolina.

The NCPL will be a single-day tournament featuring 16-20 teams in which all participating teams are guaranteed to play a minimum of four games. Each team will play three games in pool play to determine the seeding for the single-elimination championship round. The U.S. Army's title sponsorship of the NCPL ensures that teams will not be charged to participate in the event. At this time, the NCPL is looking to secure a host site and lock down a date for the inaugural event.

The NCPL is a traditional seven-on-seven non-contact passing league played on a shortened field with only passing plays from the line of scrimmage. The game features quarterbacks, wide receivers, running backs, and defensive backs, giving them an opportunity to sharpen their skills in a fun, competitive atmosphere.

The U.S. Army's title sponsorship of the NCPL ensures that teams will not be charged to participate in the event. At this time, the NCPL is looking to secure a host site and lock down a date for the inaugural event.

All football-playing high schools in the U.S. Army Asheville Recruiting Company are invited to participate in the NCPL. The recruiting territory includes the following counties in western North Carolina: Alexander; Avery; Buncombe; Caldwell; Catawba; Cherokee; Clay; Cleveland; Graham; Haywood; Henderson; Jackson; Macon; Madison; McDowell; Mitchell; Polk; Rutherford; Swain; Transylvania; Watauga; and Yancey.

High schools interested in participating or hosting the NCPL event should contact Mike Sinnott at (517) 927-4570 or via e-mail at TheSportsFlash@aol.com. For additional information, please visit the official NCPL web site at www.TheSportsFlash.com/NCPL. At the site, visitors can learn about the latest regarding the NCPL, download the official rules of play, and registration forms.

The United States Army is charged with protecting America's freedom and preserving peace. The Army trains and equips its soldiers to be the best, especially when it comes to their job, leadership, and soldiering skills. With more than 150 jobs available in many exciting fields, the U.S. Army provides many job training and leadership training opportunities. From working with computers to assisting doctors to fixing helicopters, there's an Army job that's right for you. For more information, go online to www.GoArmy.com.

The United States Passing League (USPL) will manage the North Carolina Passing League for the U.S. Army Asheville Recruiting Company. Since 2010, the USPL has managed passing league campaigns in Maryland; North Carolina; Pennsylvania; and South Carolina. The USPL is a marketing platform managed by "The Sports Flash" (TSF) Radio Network. TSF Radio Network provides local, customized sports updates to 179 network affiliates in 13 different states while managing unique sports marketing campaigns for many organizations. For more information about the USPL, NCPL, or other marketing campaigns managed by TSF Radio Network, contact Mike Sinnott at (517) 927-4570.

###