To whom it may concern:

I am writing to recommend Ms. Madi Strong for future employment opportunities.

For two years, Ms. Strong worked in our home, helping our son improve his communication and social skills. Ms. Strong actively engaged our son in activities that interested him while at the same time teaching him the skills that he needed to prepare him for preschool. Our son absolutely loved his time with Madi and looked forward to seeing and "playing" with her.

I found Ms. Strong to be a conscientious, trustworthy person who has a passion for educating children and a desire to learn. On her own time, Ms. Strong attended a few of our son's speech therapy sessions in an effort to learn more about the techniques they were using to improve his speech. In addition, without prompting, Ms. Strong asked to review any documents related to his treatments in an effort to ensure that all parties were working toward the same goals and using the same techniques.

I am confident that Ms. Strong has a bright future in the field and will be an asset to your organization.

If you have any questions, please feel free to contact me at your convenience.
